My Name is Chow Tsz Pui, Zoe. I am studying Fashion Design in Nottingham Trent University. I am applying the position of stylist. I saw the job advertisement through online. I am contacting you because I love the style of your garments of your company.

I am the suitable candidate because I know your company well. Your market level is located at the middle. Your target customers are everyone. You do not have specific customers. The key direction of your company is everyday fashion and simple

I really want to work in your company . Please give me an opportunity because I can work well if I am an employee of your company.
